Key Takeaways

Ethernet distribution boxes in Nigeria are available in SPN (Single Pole & Neutral) and TPN (Triple Pole & Neutral) configurations from suppliers like Schneider, ABT, and Fembosco Engineering. Types and Configurations

SPN (Single Pole & Neutral) Distribution Boxes are designed for single-phase systems, ideal for residential or small office Ethernet and electrical setups. TPN (Triple Pole & Neutral) Distribution Boxes are used for three-phase systems, suitable for industrial or larger commercial installations, providing safe and organized power and network distribution .

Popular Brands in Nigeria

- Schneider Electric: Offers both SPN and TPN boxes engineered for safety and reliability, suitable for Ethernet cabling and electrical circuits .
- ABT Distribution Boxes: Available in SPN and TPN, designed for efficient power and network management .
- Second Option: Provides cost-effective SPN and TPN boxes for residential and industrial use .

Suppliers and Availability

- Reliable Electrics Limited: Stocks a wide range of distribution boxes for single-phase and three-phase systems .

- Fembosco Engineering Limited: Supplies high-quality electrical panels, surface terminal shield boxes, and complete cable management solutions for homes and industries .
- Online Marketplaces: Platforms like Jiji.ng and Jumia NG offer nationwide delivery of distribution boxes at competitive prices, with options for verified sellers and fast delivery .

Considerations for Ethernet Use

When using a distribution box for Ethernet cabling:

- Ensure the box has adequate space for network patch panels, switches, and cable management.
- Choose a metal or high-quality plastic enclosure to protect against electrical interference.
- Verify compatibility with your power system (single-phase or three-phase) to prevent overloading.
- Consider IP-rated boxes if the installation is in a humid or dusty environment.

Conclusion

In Nigeria, Ethernet distribution boxes are widely available from reputable suppliers and online marketplaces. Selecting the right type (SPN or TPN), brand, and size ensures safe, organized, and efficient network and electrical distribution for residential, commercial, or industrial applications .
